216 30 DAY PLAN

13. Poster ridiculing the alert of the 10th.

Communists deny payment by the USSR Embassy. Claim money for fiesta is only from local Party and Govt. Treas.

14. -----SUNDAY-----

15. Poster and handbill on Communist treatment of Catholics in all nations where they are in control.
Handbill commenting on the use of funds from the National Treasury for a Communist fiesta.

A copy of minutes of a meeting between top Communists in Guatemala is discovered. These minutes should deal with: (1) Establishment of a new national Communist church to worship Stalin; (2) Arbitrary resettlement of the population to destroy family ties; (3) The establishment of Govt. FVD; (4) The importing of Soviet teachers for better education of Guatemalans; (5) The establishment of Russian as the first language in Guatemala to be used in all official communications; (6) The destruction of all existing churches, and the summary imprisonment of all clerics; (7) The abolishment of Sunday as a legal holiday; (8) The construction of statues honoring Stalin and Lenin; (9) A new Guatemalan flag and a new constitution modeled after that of the USSR. AND ANYTHING ELSE WHICH WOULD CREATE ANGER ON THE PART OF THE GUATEMALAN PUBLIC.

16. Handbill naming leaders of Communist fronts who have betrayed Guatemala and their religion. Keep simple and to the point.

Communists again call for mobilization for the 17th.
Communists deny "plan" even though such things may have happened in other Communist nations, they say that these things could never happen in Guatemala.

17. Poster calling attention to Communist plans.

Splinter Communist group claims that all funds collected are going to high Communist Party members and the USSR. None for Guatemala.

18. Handbill pointing out that the Guatemalan Government has done nothing to back up article 32 of the Constitution nor any other article except those that better the cause of the USSR.

Communists report that funds are not being received by the USSR Embassy in Mexico. That this will make the USSR angry at Guatemala and to all Guatemalans who should owe allegiance to the Soviet Union.

19. Handbill denouncing all phases of the Communist plans. Keep brief, concise and play on all sentiments of populace.
20. Poster showing statues of Stalin everywhere - Soviet flags with caption: "If this is Guatemala, where are the Guatemalans?" or something to that effect.
21. -----SUNDAY-----
22. Poster naming Communist leaders in Guatemala calling them traitors to Guatemala, labor, their Church and their families.
23. Handbills stating: "Why are the Communists afraid? What is there to be afraid of? Are they afraid that patriotic Guatemalans will turn against the men who would sell us out to Moscow?"
24. Handbill reacting to Communist desire to pay homage to Stalin. Suggest people pay homage to genuine Guatemalans and get rid of people who pay homage to a foreign ruler. Name Commie leaders in the Guatemalan government.
25. Poster calling attention to the statement of the Guatemalan Arch Bishop.
26. Poster illustrating some of the Communist plans.
- Invitations to a meeting where the Soviet Amb. to Mexico will speak. Also Lombardo Toledano, Luis Carlos Prestes and Diego Rivera and any other Communist who would be hard to get. Also promise the presence of certain high government officials of Guatemala.
- Communist apologize for other false alerts and say that the real danger is on the 23rd - all workers excused from work to defend their homes.
- Splinter group calls attention to the needs of the Guatemalans, but points out that funds are going to the USSR. Don't support Communists or these men. Name some of the local part and Com. fronts. Communist invite public to pay homage to the new President of Guatemala, Marshall Stalin.
- Communists again call for an alert of people and especially the labor groups who have been armed by the government.
- Communist splinter groups attacks the senseless alerts, but suggests that it might be a good thing for Guatemala if the people arose and got rid of the people who are apparently so enamored with the USSR.

27. Poster ridiculing the continuous alerts which obviously are mere expressions of a guilty conscience of those who have so brazenly sold out Guatemala to the USSR. Name the prime targets with evidence.
28. Name the traitors and their backgrounds.
29. Same on request action.
30. A call to arms to protect the Constitution and Guatemala.

From this day on try to issue conflicting orders on government letterheads, via the telephones, through mails, handbills, etc. to sow as much confusion and unrest as possible.

In the event of action it will be advisable to publish the names of those who are on the side of God - spread rumors to the effect that Communists have fled Quat. and are hiding in the USSR Embassy in Mexico - spread the word that other Communists have used Party funds to build fortunes in other countries and have already departed or are preparing for immediate departure - gain control of the radio and city control of various locales - loudspeakers and leaflets should reiterate the Communist plan - and plants in labor and the Communist part of the armed forces should spread conflicting orders via every available means. Rumors to the effect that some army unit carry the Soviet flag rather than the Guatemalan one, but that the USSR has withdrawn moral and financial support of the local party for tangleing the Guatemalan situation. Rumors should be spread that the Communists outside of Guatemala have denounced their comrades and any other rumors which would affect the morale of the troops such as saying that there is a boat waiting for all Officers who have party cards - troops will be deserted, etc.
